

Hancock County, Georgia

Ms. Trelaine Neville joined the Hancock County Early Childhood Strategy team in 2017 as team member to represent Care Source. Care Source is a nonprofit health plan headquartered in Dayton, Ohio. As one of the largest Medicaid managed health plans in the country, Care Source serves over one million consumers.

Ms. Neville was a new representative for Hancock County. She came in with her sleeves rolled up to assist Family Connection-Communities In Schools with our two major strategies of early childhood literacy and improving the health of citizens of our community. Ms. Neville, help co-sponsor our annual back to school Supply and Health Fair, by donating school book bags and health resources to families in the community.

Ms. Neville, has leveraged dollars from Care Sources to support various literacy events to improve third grade learners reading skills. Currently, 60 percent of the third graders in Hancock County Schools are not reading on grade-level. Ms. Neville and her organization has donated dollars, books, and volunteer hours to support the Early Childhood Strategy.

Ms. Neville, lives up to Care Source mission statement to work to further our mission “to make a lasting difference in our members’ lives by improving their health and well-being.” Ms. Neville possesses many great qualities such as: dedication, loyalty and a hard worker. She believes that the sky is limit to whatever families and children desire to achieve in life.
