

Family Connection-Communities In Schools of Hancock County, Inc. has been approved to by Washington Electric Foundation to receive a check in the amount of $1,663 for two sets of recess equipment to be used at the M.E. Lewis Elementary School to support the Early Childhood Strategy- "The Hancock County Collaborative will work with partners to implement a comprehensive strategy for children ages 0-8 to ensure that they are proficient readers by third grade and committed to healthy behaviors.

Mr. Graney, P.E. Instructor will purchase recess equipment for students at M.E. Lewis Elementary School.

Pictured: Dr. Norman Hart, Principal, Regina Butts, Executive Director- Family Connection-Communities In Schools of Hancock County, Inc. and Mr. Patrick Graney- P.E. Instructor for M.E. Lewis Elementary School.

Regina Butts, Executive Director
Family Connection-Communities In Schools of Hancock County, Inc.